

Highland Home Christian Camp - RISK ANALYSIS & MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

Activity/Situation: BURMA TRAIL
Date Reviewed: Thursday, January 21, 2016
Location: TOTARA RESERVE

This RAMS form remains the property of 'Highland Home Christian Camp' and may not be copied without permission.

RISK	Other forms of loss/Accident, injury	Physical Emotional Damage to bush Kill plants (small) Abrasions Scratches to body
	CASUAL FACTORS	Hazards, Perils, Dangers	PEOPLE	EQUIPMENT	ENVIRONMENT
RISK MANAGEMENT	Normal	Explain to students the risks involved. Use 'challenge by choice' option.	Ropes checked at start of activity. Blindfolds to be clean & free of foreign objects. Students to wear covered footwear.	Ropes. Blindfolds. Footwear. Clothing.	Uneven terrain. Plant roots. Broken, Fallen trees. Erosion. Hanging vines.
	Emergenc	First aid kit to be available to supervisor. Camp staff to be advised if further aid is required.

RELEVANT INDUSTRY STANDARDS APPLICABLE	None.
POLICIES AND GUIDELINES RECOMMENDED	All supervisors will complete the course in day light prior to this activity, if it is to be run at night. It is recommended that an adult be at the start and finish of this course. If run at night, there must be at least 3 adults with torches to commence a rescue if required. Accident reporting is expected and appropriate forms are available from camp staff.
SKILLS REQUIRED BY STAFF	Group management skills. First aid skills. Clear communication of instruction. Ability to encourage and put people at ease. Vigilance and awareness Should be familiar with the course.
FINAL DECISION ON IMPLEMENTING ACTIVITY	- Choose One - Name: _____ Date: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> ACCEPT <input type="checkbox"/> REJECT Comments: A good activity to build students confidence. A good activity to get students using different senses.