

Insurance of School Buildings

All integrated school property owned by proprietors of Catholic integrated schools in the Diocese of Palmerston North is currently insured by the Diocese as a Member of the New Zealand Catholic Church Insurance Scheme.

The insurance policy also covers some non-integrated property, including adventure playgrounds, shaded areas and confidence courses at the request of the proprietor, Board of Trustees or other organisation responsible for insuring such property.

The insurance premium in respect of integrated school property is paid from attendance dues. Insurance premiums for non-integrated property is payable by the Board of Trustees or other organisation requesting insurance cover.

The New Zealand Catholic Church Insurance Scheme is administered by Crombie Lockwood (NZ) Ltd.

School Chattels (Contents) Insurance

Boards of Trustees of Catholic integrated schools in the Palmerston North Diocese insure their school chattels (contents) independently of the proprietor.

All enquiries about school chattels insurance should be made to the BoT broker.

The Diocese of Palmerston North, and other Proprietors of Catholic schools in the Diocese, do not handle enquiries about school chattels insurance.
